The screenshot shows the Internet Archive homepage with a navigation bar at the top containing links for Web, Moving Images, Texts, Audio, Software, Education, Patron Info, and About IA. Below this are links for Forums, FAQs, Contributions, Jobs, and Donate. A search bar is present with a dropdown menu set to 'All Media Types' and a 'GO' button. The tagline 'Universal access to human knowledge' is displayed on the right. The main content area is divided into several sections: 'Announcements' with links to 'Bookmark explorer', 'Dead update', and a news item about the Katrina web archive; 'Web' section featuring the Wayback Machine logo and a search bar; 'Welcome to the Archive' with an RSS feed link and a description of the project; and four media-specific sections: 'Moving Images' (32,115 movies), 'Live Music Archive' (31,156 concerts), 'Audio' (79,793 recordings), and 'Texts' (27,040 texts). Each media section includes a 'Browse' link, an 'Upload your own' link, a 'This Just In' section with recent uploads, and a 'Curator's Choice' section with featured items. The footer of the page is not visible.

Welcome to Presidential Recordings

129 items

The Presidential Recordings Collection is made up of two distinct sub-collections: public speeches made by U.S. Presidents and the secret recordings made in the White House between 1940 and 1973. Many of the recordings originate from the National Archives and the individual presidential libraries that fall under the National Archives. Digital copies of the recordings have been provided by the Scripps Library at the Miller Center of Public Affairs. The Miller Center is a nonpartisan research center at the University of Virginia whose focus is the American presidency. There are also now a number of old and new presidential recordings provided by Internet Archive users. Finding aids exist for the Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon secret White House recordings. The Scripps Library has developed a webpage with detailed information on how to access and use these finding aids. Democracy Now!

Welcome to Democracy Now

2,122 items

Democracy Now! is a national, daily, independent, award-winning news program airing on over 350 stations in North America. Pioneering the largest public media collaboration in the U.S., Democracy Now! is broadcast on Pacifica, community, and National Public Radio stations, public access cable television stations, satellite television (Free Speech TV, channel 9415 on the DISH Network and Link TV, channel 375 on Direct TV), shortwave radio and the internet. The program is hosted by award-winning journalists Amy Goodman and Juan Gonzalez and produced out of the Downtown Community Television Center, a community media center in New York City's Chinatown. The War and Peace Report provides our audience with access to people and perspectives rarely heard in the U.S. corporate-sponsored media, including independent and international journalists, ordinary people from around the world who are directly affected by U.S. foreign policy, grassroots leaders and peace activists, artists, academics and independent analysts. In addition, the War and Peace Report hosts real debates - debates between people who substantially disagree, such as between the White House or the Pentagon spokespeople on the one hand, and grassroots activists on the other. See also Democracy Now!'s moving images collection.

Got threads? Online communities are among the most popular tools used on the net. However, these tools have had limited refinement over the last two decades and are now reaching their limit of utility, as volumes rise beyond the abilities of mere humans to keep up. This talk will demonstrate several technologies and concepts that show promise as ways to enhance online communities, making them easier to discover and making it easier to select high-quality content, evaluate that

The Man Who Knew Too Much (1934)

Alfred Hitchcock

While travelling in Switzerland, the child of a well-off couple is kidnapped. She is held to ensure that her father does not reveal what he knows about a planned assassination. Since they can't talk to the authorities, the parents plan to begin the search for their daughter on their own.

This is the original, British-made movie from 1934 and is now in the public domain. After coming to the United States, Alfred Hitchcock produced a remake of this movie in 1956 starring James (Jimmy) Stewart and Doris Day. The remake remains under copyright.

Director: Alfred Hitchcock

Producer: Ivor Montagu

Production Company: Gaumont British Picture Corporation, Ltd.

i agree with the last reviewer.this is much superior to the remake.

And Peter Lorre is at his creepiest best.

why can,t hollywood crank out any top notch talent they had back in the 1930's-1970's?

Powody długoterminowej archiwizacji zasobów

- Zagrożenia: utrata, zniszczenie nośnika zapisu,

- Ewolucja, starzenie się formatów umożliwiające zapoznanie się z zasobami cyfrowymi.

Ochrona przed zagrożeniami

- Ciągła migracja do nowych formatów,
- Emulacja starszych aplikacji (np. emulacja starszych technologii na współczesnych platformach technologicznych).

- Brak zrozumienia istoty ewolucji dokonującej się w świecie technologii i zapisu informacji może być powodem bezpowrotnej utraty możliwości odczytu elektronicznych zasobów

DŁUGOTERMINOWA ARCHIWIZACJA ZASOBÓW CYFROWYCH

- „zbiór wszystkich procesów służących zapewnieniu ciągłości dostępu do materiałów należących do dziedzictwa cyfrowego w okresie, w którym ciągłość taka jest pożądana” (Ochrona dziedzictwa cyfrowego: zalecenia, Oprac. National Library of Australia)
- zachowanie środków zapewniających dostęp do autentycznej treści cyfrowego dokumentu, ale także jego wykorzystanie zgodnie z celem, w jakim został stworzony.

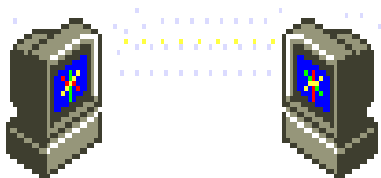

Rozmiar współczesnego świata cyfrowego to 1.2 zetabajty ( $1.2 \times 10^{12}$  gigabajów), a z każdym rokiem świat ten jest większy o 50% (przy czym 25% to zasoby unikalne, 75% - kopie) – Piotr Beńke (IBM)

PARADOKS

„tradycyjnie, ochrona rzeczy oznaczała zachowanie ich w niezmienionej formie; tymczasem rzeczywistość cyfrowa zmieniła fundamentalnie naszą koncepcję wymagań konserwacyjnych. Jeżeli zachowamy informację cyfrową bez modyfikacji, dostęp do niej stanie się niezmiernie trudny, jeżeli nie niemożliwy”

Su-Sing Chen, profesor z Wydziału Informatyki i Inżynierii Informatyki z Uniwersytetu na Florydzie.

Biblioteki jako jeden z największych „producentów danych cyfrowych”

Główne problemy:

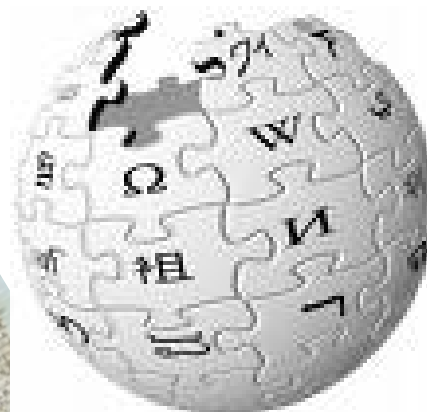

- ☐ rozbudowa systemu zarządzającego zarchiwizowanymi zasobami,
- ☐ prawidłowa organizacja metadanych,
- ☐ konieczność zapewnienia dostępu w perspektywie długoterminowej,
- ☐ bezpieczeństwo,
- ☐ poufność,
- ☐ kompletność i niezmienność danych,
- ☐ utrzymanie ich substancji,
- ☐ autentyczność,
- ☐ integralność danych,
- ☐ rosnące koszty przechowywania danych cyfrowych.

„misją Narodowej Infrastruktury Informacji Cyfrowej i Programu Ochrony jest gromadzenie, archiwizowanie i zabezpieczanie rosnących ilości danych, zwłaszcza materiałów, które mają tylko formę elektroniczną (tzw. born digital) dla obecnych i przyszłych pokoleń”

Ochrona zbiorów cyfrowych składa się z polityki, strategii i działań mających na celu zapewnienie dostępu do treści cyfrowych (zdigitalizowanych i utworzonych cyfrowo), niezależnie od wad i defektów nośników jak i zmian technologicznych. Celem ochrony zbiorów cyfrowych jest dokładne przedstawienie ustalonej treści w czasie.
